

Why Did You Come Here

1. Work with government officials
2. Learn more about landscape
3. Politics has not been kind to engineers
4. Eliminate political gridlock
5. I like politics!
6. Political platform
7. Mentoring!
8. This is the future!
9. Spread the knowledge
10. To be a politician
11. Learn how to break political gridlock
12. Increase infrastructure spending
13. Learn (said by audience more than once)
14. Why do engineers shy away
15. Increase prestige
16. Observe and interact
17. Network to increase our political voice
18. Get involved in grassroots efforts for infrastructure
19. Add insight
20. Grad student looking for mentor
21. Take next steps to merge engineers, technicians, and politics
22. Raise awareness
23. Increase jobs
24. Understand legal jargon (said by audience more than once)
25. Why in the U.S. do we shy away from politics
26. Enjoy politics
27. Politics affect both engineers and non engineers: How to get active
28. Learn the rules
29. Networking
30. PECG: Bringing engineers together to pursue mutual objectives
31. Work together
32. Public awareness
33. Improve our image
34. Learn to be involved
35. To see the engineering community
36. How can I help
37. Help the community
38. Move engineers together with politics
39. Bring groups together

- 40. Add lobbying
- 41. ALL the above